

Please leave satellite radio alone. It's in the air and we pay for it. So only people who want it are listening. I'm sick of every time something new comes along the FCC has to get involved. Quit censoring us!